

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE DIRECTOR

Attached is a summary of Personnel's accomplishments and plans for the future, written in the form of a commentary on Mr. Kirkpatrick's observations of 25 February 1955, addressed to you on the subject of "Ten Ways for Improving CIA's Personnel Management."

I think that you can take encouragement from the forward steps that Personnel has been making, as well as from the scope of their plans for the future. I believe that Mr. Reynolds is now aware of the value of advertising some of the things that have been done but which suffered from having been done so quietly. Although this paper is lengthy, of necessity, I believe that you and General Cabell will find it informative.

I concur in these comments except re Point 8. I believe a woman should be given a high position in office Div/Pers. but not to have management responsibilities for women.
